

Leadership: From Ordinary to Extraordinary

Program Overview

In today's fast paced ever changing business environment and as one of your company's leaders, you must accomplish results with less people, less resources and in less time. This program is designed to help you lead your team from the ordinary to the extraordinary. This program will teach you what leadership is and provide you with the skills that you need to enable your employees to achieve and to lead them through change and conflict.

We are experts in how adults learn. In addition to traditional classroom teaching methods, our program is highly interactive. It includes videos to reinforce the classroom materials plus experiential learning exercises and discussions.

Program Length

Multi-day, Full or multi-half day programs are available.

Program Objectives

At the conclusion of this program, you will understand the various dimensions of personal and organizational change relating to leadership and your role as the leader. You will develop a strategy to lead your team to improved performance and greater effectiveness and a plan to personally develop your leadership potential.
